

Christmas Ballet Performance Notes 2013

The ballet is almost here! The past 6 rehearsals went by so quickly! Yes, there have only been six! We have two more practices at the studio to “get it right” before we take the show to the stage for dress rehearsal. Here are a few reminders:

Saturday, December 7 – Rehearse at the studio –see schedule on internet

Friday, December 13 6:00pm-8:00pm Rehearse at studio in practice clothes

Saturday, December 14 10am-12:30pm Dress Rehearsal at Jay M Robinson (mandatory for performance) Dancers may leave when excused by director

6:15pm Report backstage for performance in costume. Dancers are expected to stay for the duration of the performance.

No food items or drinks should be brought backstage or into the auditorium (part of our agreement with the school)

Turn in your costume the night of performance (bring clothing to wear home!)

Performance Rules –

- No chewing gum, nail polish, visible tattoos, jewelry (including pierced earrings)
- Hair in bun unless directed otherwise by the staff
- Sacred Dancers – hair in bun/black footless tights/ black wrap skirt
- Pink Tights and shoes unless otherwise directed by the staff
- Dancers remain backstage throughout performance
- No photos or males in the dressing room area please!

Deadline to donate to Friends of the Ballet and be included in the program is Wednesday, December 11.

100% of the donations given as admission at the ballet are donated to the Coltrane LIFE Center. The dance studio does not take a cut of this donation. Checks that night should be made directly to them – not the dance studio.
