

CHRISTMAS BALLET REHEARSAL

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17

Note that practice is early Friday evening, and again we are putting large scenes together. If you are an understudy, your primary role takes priority. All costumes are ready for distribution. If you haven't received your costume, please make sure you take it home this week. (See note below) There is no rehearsal Thanksgiving weekend. We hope to see you all this Friday!

About costumes: Please note that you make not make permanent alterations to the costumes. Feel free to take up straps or hems using temporary measures that can easily be undone without damaging the costume. Don't wait until the last minute to try on the costume! In some cases we have extra sizes and can change out the size for you. In some cases we must "make do."
